

Who Gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate?™

Resources to Help You Pass on Personal Possessions

A Complimentary Presentation by: Robert J. Shanahan, Jr., Esq.

New Jersey Attorney at Law, Concentrating in Estate Planning and Elder Law
Shanahan & Voigt, LLC, Flemington NJ www.legalcounselnj.com

June 9, 2017, 1:00 p.m.

Hunterdon County Senior Center, Route 31 County Complex 4 Gauntt Place, Building # 1, Flemington NJ 08822 (908)788-1359

Passing on personal possessions is an issue for everyone!

- Owners of personal property
- Family members including:
 - Spouses*
 - Adult children*
 - Siblings*
 - Grandchildren*
- Personal representatives (estate executors)
- Professionals involved in:
 - Estate planning and probate*
 - Downsizing and household moves*
 - Assisted living and nursing homes*
 - Estate sale and auctions*
 - Faith-based communities*
 - Funeral Homes*

Whether planning ahead or making decisions when someone dies, Who Gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate?™ resources will help families:

- Understand sensitivity of the issues
- Determine what they want to accomplish
- Decide what's "fair" for their family
- Understand belongings have different meanings to different individuals
- Consider distribution options and consequences
- Agree to manage conflicts if they arise

Who Gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate?™* resources can help!